Splendid Productions
DR. FAUSTUS

This year adaptors Kerry Frampton and Ben Hales are re-visiting Christopher Marlowe's famous morality play.

Splendid first adapted Dr Faustus for their 2009/2010 tour, and although a lot has changed in the last 10 years, the story of a pompous idiot laughing in the face of nature, selling his soul to the Devil in a poorly-explained deal that promises much but delivers nothing... well, it seemed to resonate as strongly as ever.

Keeping the crowd-pleasing spectacle (and much of the language) of Marlowe's original, this show brings the audience closer than ever to the demonic temptations of Lucifer, Beezlebug and Mephistopheles. Surely a 21st century audience will not sell their own souls so cheaply? We can't wait to find out.

"An outstanding performance...
Powerful and effective
(and funny too!)"

March 11-13th 7.30 p.m.

Canford Drama
FRANKENSTEIN

Canford Senior Drama Scholars present Nick Dear's version of Mary Shelley's classic.

Reviewed as a 'humane, intelligent re-telling of the original' story in which much of the focus is on the plight of the obsessive scientist's sad creation, who becomes his alter ego and his nemesis'.

This version challenges audiences and performers alike to ask which of the two main characters is the real monster, the twisted repulsive creature or his creator?

Pursuit of creative perfection and seeking to understand the nature of friendship and love might be universal drives - but how are we measuring up?

APRIL 25th 7.30 p.m.

Ballet theatre UK
GISELLE

Join Ballet Theatre UK in one of the greatest ballets, Giselle.

A tragically romantic tale of a young girl who falls deeply in love, however is deceived for he was betrothed to another. In despair and desperation the young girl kills herself, unable to live without him.

The Queen of the Wilis, along with the ghosts of young girls who die before their wedding nights, condemns the lover to dance to his death.

He can only be saved by the intervention of the spirit of Giselle and the break of dawn which force the Wilis to flee. First performed in 1841, Giselle has never lost its popularity with audiences, considered to be one of the jewels in the crown of the romantic repertoire.

Featuring a full Corps de Ballet of 24 international dancers along with the critically acclaimed Principal Dancers, Ballet Theatre UK present this haunting classic in its full glory set to the stunning music by Adolphe Adam.
